NASHVILLE BACES. NASHNILLE, May 27.

The regular meeting on the Nashville Driving Park closed yesterday, but the Driving Fark closed yesternay, but the pacing race was improvised to-day between Dan Voorhees and Hoosiertown, mile heats, three in five, which was won by the latter, Dan Voorhees winning the first two heats. Time, 2:214, 2:104, 3:204, 2:214 and 2:25. BASE BALL.

NEW YORK, May 27.

A match game of base ball on the Union Grounds at Williamsburg, to-day, between the Bostons of Boston and the Olympics of Washington, was won by the latter. The following is the score: Olympics—1, 0, 0, 0, 0, 0, 0, 3, 2. Total, 6. Bostons—3, 2, 0, 0, 0, 0, 0, 0. Total, 15.

The game is considered the best played, and the most closely contested, ever played, and the most closely contested, ever played on the Union grounds. From the close of the third to the close of the seventh inning, the fielding on both sides was perfection. George Wright did not play on the Boston side. Allison, notwithstanding a sore hand, played in most masterly style. masterly style.

CLEVELAND. CLEVELAND, May 28.

CLEVELAND, May 28.
Early Saturday ovening a young man named John H. Hunter, of Carson City, Mich., went to the house of Robert Gargett, a former resident of Richfield township, Summit county. Hunter was a suitor of Gargett's daughter, and had recently been discirded. He met the old gentleman at the gate, and demanded to see the young lady. Upon being told that he could not see her, he drew a revolver and fired a bullet into Mr. Gargett's head. He then rushed into the house and shot Mrs. Gargett, killing her instantly. Rodney Gargett, a young man, seized the ruflian and was also shot in the head, but not seriously. Miss Gargett escaped by leaping from a second-story window and taking refuge in a neighbor's house. The murderer was arrestly the seriously and the seriously. neighbor's house. The murderer was ar-rested and is now in jail. Two Boys Accidentally Drowned in Wheeling Creek.

Last evening at about half-past six o'clock two boys, aged respectively 12 and 8 years, and named George and Charles Schnenhals, were drowned in Wheeling Creek about opposite Ford, Dodson, Burt of Chapline Sairt, and it is thought that hegot his arms entangled in it, and was therefore unable to nelp himself. The younger boy, who was standing on the abore, plunged in was sasen that the cider boy was drowning, and the two grappled and went under. By this time quite a number of men had congregated on the shore, several of whom plunged in to rescue the boys should they fise again, but they had risen for the last time. The men then commenced diving for their bodies, but without avail as the bottom is very rough at that point In about the or fifteen minutes the body of the younger boy came to the surface, and in a tew minutes more that of the elder. All that could be done to restore lie was all the other of fifteen minutes the body of the younger boy came to the surface, and in a tew minutes more that of the elder.
